1 day / 28 km

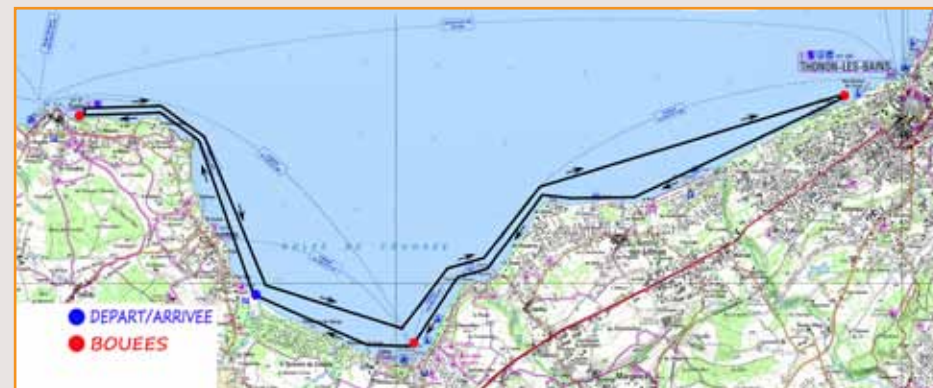

REQUIRED LEVEL

ROUTE

Rowing on Lake Geneva between lake and mountain is a magical moment ! During this tour you can discover the many architectural riches of the shore and lake, the medieval village of Yvoire with its castle and its typical Sardinian bell tower, the Chataignière, the castle of Coudrée (XIIth century) Yvoire, Sciez. You will discover, on the horizon, the mountains of Haut-Chablais : mass of the Dent d'Oche, Cornettes de Bise and the mountains of Valais in Switzerland.

SIGHTSEEING

Throughout this tour, you can discover the ornithological richness of the lake (ducks, kestrels, grebes, swans, herons, cormorants, coots, etc.). The village of Yvoire deserves a visit and in particular the « Garden of the Five Senses ». For your taste buds, the region allows you to taste and savor our cheeses such as reblochon, tomme and abundance without forgetting our lake fish : féras, perch... , accompanied by local wines : Crépy, Marignan, Marin and Ripaille.

PROVISIONAL PLANNING

You will start in line at 9.30am from Excenevex beach for a 28 km journey. You will then head west towards Rovorée peak where you will row along the coast and come across the typical medieval village of Yvoire. Then you will make a U turn and row back towards Sciez bay and near Thonon city, before turning back once again to return to Excenevex beach. On the way you will cross the ports of Séchex and Sciez, not to mention Coudrée's impressive fortified castle. Volunteers from the club will greet you on the beach with a drink before taking you to enjoy a typical local meal.
