

ITINERANT TOUR

« COURREAUX DE GROIX » RAID

 03 - 05 june
3 days / 50 km

 REQUIRED LEVEL

ROUTE

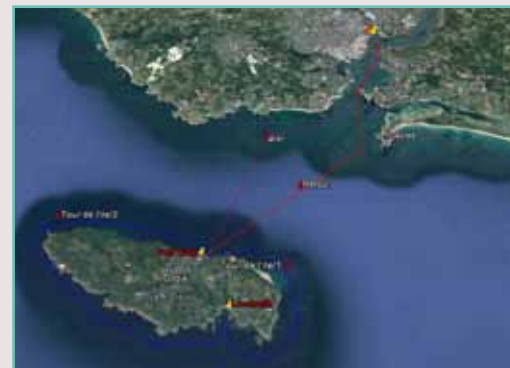

You will start in Lorient, then pass by Port Louis' fortress and head towards Groix where you will stop in Port-Tudy, the island main port. You will drop the boats on the slipway. The next day you will discover :

- Grands Sables beach : A unique European convex beach which moved by 160m in 2 years,
- Tip of « Les Chats » (cats) : light colored show on the multiple rocks,
- Locmaria, first harbor of Groix, which was the most populated village until the booming of Port Tudy in the 1880's. You will also make a stop in Port Tudy,
- Pen Men Lighthouse which was built in 1839 and overlooks the wild coast and many more places such as and le Trou de l'enfer ("Hell's Hole") or Port-Nicolas.

SIGHTSEEING

Come and visit the island of Groix, just a few leagues away from Lorient. Groix is an authentic natural and well preserved island, where fishing cabins are made of rocks and painted bright. No traffic lights, only one roundabout and so few cars... it's paradise !

You can also choose to discover Groix by bike along the 40km of paths throughout the island and its 17 villages. Let the atmosphere of the island surprise you, and enjoy wandering around on the village' small streets and coastal paths. Take time to discover the bright houses, the bell tower and its famous tuna fish. You can conclude your afternoon discovering Port-Lay where you will pitch your tent and taste local specialties while admiring the sunset. It's magic !
