ROUTE

At the feet of the Vercors Mountains, halfway between Grenoble and Valence, you will embark on a memorable descent of the Isère River, starting near the historical Sône Castle, with Vercors cliffs and Royans red rocks in the background. This natural break in south Grésivaudan will give you time to discover tuff landscapes and reed beds full of aquatic birds before reaching Saint-Nazaire-en-Royans and its aqueduct and then go back.

SIGHTSEEING

Beside the Sône historical heritage, you will accomplish a botanical world tour through the visit of the petrifying fountains gardens with their amazing tuff concretions. Once there you may experience the river as you would Mississippi, aboard a paddle steamer which will leave from Saint-Nazaire-en-Royans and take you to discover Thais prehistoric caves. A few kilometers away you can choose to discover either Saint Marcellin and its famous cheese, or Saint Antoine, the most beautiful French medieval village with its 13th century abbey, or else Pont-en-Royans with its suspended houses. This tour will also prove an opportunity to discover local specialties such as Saint Marcellin cheese, ravioli, nuts... A delightful day in perspective!
