« PRUNEAU D'AGEN » TOUR

16 & 17 september

2 days / 42 km

REQUIRED LEVEL

ROUTE

The club Saint-Livradais is pleased to invite you to row on the river in its broad downstream part :

On Saturday, you will picnic before rowing for 14 km towards the Lot-et-Garonne confluence. Each meander of the river may offer you yet another landscape and glimpse at the local fauna: swans, grey herons. Once you reach the nautical base in Temple-sur-Lot, where many clubs and the French rowing team come for practice, you will turn around in the beautiful marina of Port Lalande.

On Sunday morning, you go up the Lot in the direction of Villeneuve, stroll through a peaceful nature with a stop in Casseneuil, a pretty medieval village, capital of the prune of Agen.

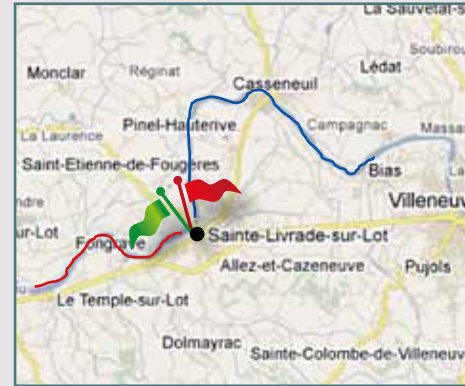

You will be welcome at the Club House for breakfasts and meals. On Saturday evening you are invited to take part in the party organizes for where you will enjoy drinks, a typical diner in a lively atmosphere. The accommodation is located in Pujols, a listed village, where you can arrive on Friday evening. Bikes are available for companions.

THE 10TH ANNIVERSARYOF THE « PRUNEAU D'AGEN » TOUR,

SIGHTSEEING

Towards the end of the tour, the Lot River winds in a plain which is characteristic in its polyculture : cereals, Tobacco, hazel tree... and of course the famous plum tree from Ente, whose history you can discover in a dedicated museum. This land which used to be English soil will invite you along the path of the typical southwestern Bastides, as well as its numerous dovecotes which are part of the local charm.
